

Cascade Christian School

About the School

Cascade Christian Schools is a Christian, coeducational day school located in Puyallup, Washington. The mission at CCS is to provide quality education dedicated to developing discerning leaders who are spiritually, personally, and academically prepared to meet their world. The core purpose of Cascade Christian School is transforming cultures through teaching and training people in their spiritual and personal purpose. CCS enrolls approximately 380 students each year, with 54 students from countries outside of the USA.

Location

Cascade Christian School is located in Puyallup, Washington, which is located just 5 miles from Tacoma, the nation's third largest city, and 30 miles from the state capitol, Seattle. Many tourists visit the Space Needle and the Future of Flight Aviation Center and Boeing Tour. The Pacific Science Center features gigantic robotic dinosaurs with live shows. Seattle, just a 30 minute drive from Puyallup, is also the home of the Seattle Supersonics NBA basketball team. Average temperatures in Puyallup range from approximately 35 degrees Fahrenheit in December and January to about 80 degrees Fahrenheit in July. Most of the rainfall, averaging about 35 inches per year, occurs in November.

Academic Program

At Cascade Christian School, there is a dedication to developing discerning leaders. The academic program focuses on preparing, motivating, and inspiring students to passionately pursue their purpose and engage in lifelong learning. CCS implements a quality, sequential, measurable curriculum, while providing a strong academic-based content in every curricular discipline, enabling the student to become equipped for the next steps in their pursuit of excellence. Cascade Christian students are taught the "Three R's" of personal and social maturity: Respect, Responsibility and Relationships. Students attending CCS do not need to be proficient in English, as ESL is offered. Students are able to graduate in one year from CCS provided all state and local requirements are met.

Facilities

Facilities at Cascade Christian School include: Athletic Fields, Auditorium, Classrooms, Computer Lab, Gymnasium, Library, and Science Labs.
