ABOUT THE LOCATION

Petrolia is a small town of about 5,500 and is near many pristine beaches and forested areas offering plenty of outdoor activity. Southwestern Ontario is surrounded by the Great Lakes, the largest collection of freshwater bodies in the world. The area also provides excellent cultural and recreational programs and facilities for residents to enjoy all year long. This location also provides easy access to larger cities and attractions such as Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, and Niagara Falls. The quiet, yet ideal location proves to be a good location for students to spend an exchange program.
